

Dawson and his title is: Justice Advisor , INL/Jerusalem

John Dawson is the contracted Justice Advisor at the American Consulate in Jerusalem. He is a lawyer and was three-times elected as a county chief prosecutor in his home State of Pennsylvania. John served 15 years as a public prosecutor.

John first arrived here in 2010. Before serving here, John was chief-of-team for U.S. justice missions in Afghanistan and in Liberia. John was also a justice advisor in Iraq.

John partners with the Palestinian Attorney General's Office, with public prosecutors and with the Financial Follow-up Unit to provide assistance on infrastructure, case management, investigations, prosecutions, and financial investigations.